A Look Back at What the Hinton Mills Team Did in April 2026

f See more pictures of what the Hinton Mills team did this past month on Facebook

FAITH • FAMILY • FRIENDS • FARMING

Team and family members gathered to host a baby shower for our friend and teammate Donna Allen.

Seanna Skinner showcased her artistic talents at our storefront for "Cynthiana in Bloom."

Stephen Smalley and Sarah McKenzie attended Fleming County's 6th Grade Career Exploration Day.

Joe Fraley provided livestock nutrition lessons for youth attending the Strive for the Drive events at Morehead State & Murray State University.

Stephen Smalley, Adam Hinton, and Arch Smith attended an event at Keenland to build on what they learned at our "Horse Days."

Joe Fraley led a mill tour and roundtable discussion with Dr. Phil Prater during our "Horse Days" event.

Stephen Smalley, Joe Fraley, Adam Hinton, Sarah McKenzie, and their spouses attended the Morehead State University Spring Gala to support student scholarships.

Adam attended Congressman Andy Barr's Hemp Roundtable & Press Conference in Cynthiana. The event was hosted by our customers, Furnish Farms. Barr shared his commitment to preserving the industrial hemp industry for farmers and setting new standards to protect consumers.

We purchase hanging baskets from Commissioner of Agriculture, Jonathan Shell. The team recently helped Jonathan unload beautiful flowers for our upcoming Mother's Day Sale.
