FAITH • FAMILY • FRIENDS • FARMING

We debuted our new Blue Ribbon Beef Feed shirts to the team at Plummers Landing! These shirts were inspired by team member, Gage Hord.

Several folks showed up at our Beef Month event excited to see Kenny "Sky" Walker but no one more excited than Matt, Adam & Nathan's grandmother.

"Little Hinton Market" set up to sale tomato plants that they had seeded, tended to and grown with their little hands.

Thomas Massie, a long time Hinton Mills customer, made a stop at May's Lick Mill to speak with folks and answer questions before the primary election.

Joe Fraley & Sarah McKenzie attended Fleming County Soil Conservation District's Family Farm Field Day at 606 Sales and Events.

Doug Reeves and Bud Hinton attended the end of school year celebration for Doug's Lunch Bunch group at Hillsboro Elementary School.

We kicked off Beef Month with the Kentucky Beef Council and the Kentucky Cattlemen's Association to promote KY beef! Teams from across the state participated in our annual cookoff with the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce team winning again this year! The Cattlemen's Associations from Fleming, Mason, and Eastern Foothills each set up at one of our mills to cook steak. Thanks to our communities, we sold over 600 boxed lunches with the proceeds benefiting local scholarships!

Team members at Fleming County Farm Supply won a first quarter Team Hinton Cup challenge and thoroughly enjoyed their victory pizza party. Travis couldn't find a plate large enough.

Stephen Flynn and Stephen Smalley presented this year's Team Hinton scholarships at the Fleming County High School Senior Award Ceremony. Recipients of those scholarships were team members Caleb Latham, Sam Thomas and Hunter Ashmore. Scholarships were also awarded to a couple of our team members children, Jessica Fryman and Jenna Marshall. Congratulations to each of these graduates. Remember to always work hard, be kind and serve others.

We've teamed up with community partners again this year to bring you

Hunter Jordan, Classic Cravings, Lion's Club Breakfast, Fun Run, Tractor Show, FFA Lunch, Small Animal Swap, Kiddie Tractor Pull, Parade, Cattlemen's Steak Sandwich Supper, Community Church Service & SO MUCH MORE!
